

Newbury Chamber Choir

is proud to present

BRAHMS REQUIEM ~ COME & SING

Saturday 31st January 2009
St. Nicolas' Church, Newbury

An unprecedented opportunity to sing this tremendous piece with full orchestra in West Berkshire.

The day will be led by Edward Lambert. Edward studied at Oxford and the Royal College of Music and went onto work for several opera companies, most notably the Royal Opera House. As a conductor, accompanist, chorus master and coach he has worked throughout Britain and Europe.

We warmly welcome you for this day of music making; a wonderful occasion for singers to join together from around the area. With full orchestra we will perform the complete work in German at the conclusion of the day.

If you would like to join us please fill in your details below and return the slip and cheque to:

NCC ~ Brahms Come & Sing, Rachel Bowey
156 Craven Road,
Newbury,
RG14 5NR

The day will commence at 12noon with registration and conclude with a full performance commencing at 7.30pm. Full details of the schedule, directions and parking will be sent to you nearer the time. The fee for the day is just £15 which will include music hire.

Please make cheques payable to Newbury Chamber Choir. (We will be singing from the 'Peters' score should you want to bring your own)

We look forward to seeing you there.
